

The Metropolitan Museum of Art Resources at Your Fingertips!

Use The Met's online resources to support your teaching.

The Met Collection metmuseum.org/collection

Find high-resolution images of works of art, related information and multimedia content, and the locations of objects in the galleries.

Heilbrunn Timeline of Art History metmuseum.org/toah

Discover works of art in The Met collection paired with essays and chronologies. Together they tell the story of art and global culture, which can be relevant to your teaching. Search by geographic location, time period, subject, artist name, and more.

#MetKids metmuseum.org/metkids

Explore this digital feature, made for, with, and by kids ages 7–12, including behind-the-scenes videos, a time machine, fun facts about works of art, and ideas for creative projects.

School Group Self-Guides metmuseum.org/schoolgroups

Use tour tips, introductions to the galleries, and lists of collection highlights to plan a self-guided class visit to the Museum. (See “Self-Guided Visits and Lecturing,” then scroll down to “Teacher Resources.”)

Lesson Plans and Curriculum Guides metmuseum.org/lessonplans metmuseum.org/edcurriculum

Select from a range of lesson plans or delve into educator resource guides, which contain in-depth essays and information about works of art, as well as lesson plans.

The Artist Project metmuseum.org/artistproject

In this online series, hear artists reflect on what art is and what inspires them from across 5,000 years of art at The Met. (Scroll to the bottom of the page to select from numerous episodes in seasons 1 through 6.)

Visit Nolen Library metmuseum.org/nolen
