Mediterranean Masterpieces: Cádiz to Nice Aboard Sea Cloud II

Dear Members and Friends of the Metropolitan Museum of Art,

The Spanish Riviera and Côte d’Azur are as historic as they are beautiful, dotted with venerable Roman ports and archaeological marvels dating back millennia. Join The Met as we sail the Mediterranean coastline from Cádiz to Nice on the elegant Sea Cloud II, stopping to behold the dazzling masterpieces of art and architecture that inspired everyone from the Phoenicians to Picasso.

Our journey begins in the lively ancient port city of Cádiz to admire the oldest Roman theater in Spain and gaze at the formidable 18th-century cathedral. Sea Cloud II will sail through the famous Pillars of Hercules to Gibraltar, where we will climb to the top of its mighty rock. We will visit Málaga, birthplace of Picasso, and Granada, where we will roam the exquisite palace courtyards of the UNESCO-listed Alhambra and the fountain-filled gardens of Generalife.

After a lovely day on the high seas, we will call at Valencia to discover its majestic Old Town and the castle-like Lonja de la Seda, a 15th-century silk market and awe-inspiring Gothic masterpiece. We’re particularly excited to introduce you to Tarragona, a seldom-visited yet spectacular ancient gem that is the oldest Roman settlement in all of Spain. We will see the Pont del Diable, a stunning bridge that formed part of a Roman aqueduct built in the 1st century B.C. We will enjoy a private guided tour of Tarragona’s Archaeological Museum and explore the city’s Roman circus and amphitheater. The vivid blue waters of Côte d’Azur will carry us to Marseille, where we will view the murals and Byzantine mosaics of the 19th-century Basilica Notre Dame de la Garde, in contrast to the city’s cutting-edge Museum of Contemporary Art, which we’ll visit next.

We will enjoy this relaxing and culturally stimulating trip in the company of members from the National Trust for Historic Preservation and esteemed alumni from Harvard and Williams College. An optional three-night prelude to Seville is available, and an optional three-night postlude to Nice and the French Riviera will provide an additional opportunity to unwind and mingle with fellow travelers. I hope you will accompany The Met on this fascinating voyage.

Sincerely,
Clyde B. Jones III

Mediterranean Masterpieces: Cádiz to Nice Aboard Sea Cloud II
April 16–25, 2020

An optional prelude in Seville, Spain is offered from April 13–17, 2020.

Departure
Thursday, April 16
Depart for Seville on an overnight flight.

Seville / Cádiz, Spain
Friday, April 17
Arrive today in Seville, Spain, and drive to Jerez de la Frontera for a tasting of its native sherry. Transfer to Cádiz, an ancient port city. Enjoy lunch before exploring the city’s landmarks. Start at the 16th-century Plaza de San Juan de Dios in the heart of the city, and admire the beautiful town hall and the Basilica of San Juan de Dios. Step back in time at the Roman Theatre, the oldest in Spain, dating from the end of the 1st century B.C. Finish at the cathedral, which was begun in the 18th century and took over 100 years to build; its architectural styles range from Baroque to Rococo to Neoclassical and the building is host to a beautiful, elaborately carved wooden choir stall. Transfer to Sea Cloud II and set sail for Gibraltar this evening.

Málaga / Motril, Spain
Sunday, April 19
In the port city of Málaga, birthplace of Picasso, enjoy an exclusive, before-hours visit to his eponymous museum. Then travel by coach to Granada to experience Spain’s masterpiece, the Alhambra Palace. After lunch, stroll through the exquisite palace courtyards, with their grand vistas, and the gardens of the Generalife, featuring watercourses and fountains. Rejoin the ship in Motril in time for dinner on board.

At Sea
Monday, April 20
During a day at sea, discover the thrill of sailing aboard Sea Cloud II and experience the grace and romance of a bygone era of travel. Attend lectures and enjoy the amenities of our fine ship.

Valencia, Spain
Tuesday, April 21
After lunch, call at Valencia, the “City of Gold.” Discover the Old Town with its UNESCO-recognized Lonja de la Seda, a former trading center and silk exchange; the Central Market, and the spectacular 14th- to 15th-century cathedral. Admire the striking architecture of the famed City of Arts and Sciences complex, designed by Valencia-born architect Santiago Calatrava. Here you may enjoy entrance to the museum complex or take a guided walking tour of the old city before returning to Sea Cloud II.

Tarragona, Spain
Wednesday, April 22
Arrive this afternoon in Tarragona, the oldest Roman settlement on the Iberian Peninsula. Visit the Pont del Diable, an imposing bridge that formed part of an ancient Roman aqueduct. Then take a guided visit to the Archaeological Museum, founded in the 19th century and host to the remnants of the Roman wall. We will also tour the Roman Circus, where horse and chariot races were held in the 1st century. Later, visit the Roman Amphitheatre, built in the 2nd century and remodeled in 224 A.D. Return to the ship in time for a midnight sailing.

Day at Sea
Thursday, April 23
After a morning lecture, savor your last day sailing on the Sea Cloud II as she makes her way to Côte d’Azur. Observe the crew as they practice the art of trimming the sails by hand.

Marseille, France
Friday, April 24
Arrive this morning in the lively port city of Marseille. Tour the 19th-century Basilica Notre-Dame de la Garde and the Museum of Contemporary and Modern Art, housed in a cutting-edge building. Return to the ship for a special Marseille-inspired lunch while you enjoy an afternoon sailing along the French Riviera.

Nice, France / Return
Saturday, April 25
Disembark Sea Cloud II early this morning and transfer to the airport for flights home.
