Sailing the River Ganges

Round-Trip Kolkata Aboard Ganges Voyager

Dear Members and Friends of The Metropolitan Museum of Art,

As Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru wrote, the Ganges is “the river of India, beloved of her people, ‘round which are intertwined her hopes and fears, her songs of triumph, her victories and her defeats.’” Join me in January 2024 on The Met’s first-ever voyage along this sacred waterway, the holiest river of Hinduism. We will cruise this river aboard the luxurious Ganges Voyager, sailing round trip from Kolkata through West Bengal. As a scholar of Asian art, I am excited to introduce you to the wonderful museums, ornate terra-cotta brick temples, and the extraordinary energy of daily life in villages along the Ganges.

In vibrant Kolkata, we will explore the opulent Neoclassical palaces built by wealthy Hindu merchants, as well as the diverse collections of the Indian Museum. We will also visit the Kalighat Kali Temple, a colorful pilgrimage site dedicated to Kali, the Hindu goddess of creation, nurturing, and destruction. As we sail upstream to Bandel, we will admire the magnificent terra-cotta temples in Kalna. In the village of Matiari, we will witness artisans crafting beautiful objects from brass and copper.

An exquisite highlight will be the intricately carved terra-cotta temples around the village of Baranagar, a former trading post. In Murshidabad, once the capital of the richest province in the Mughal Empire, we will savor timeless artworks in a 19th-century royal palace known for its 1,000 doors. A special visit to the vast Hare Krishna temple complex in Mayapur will inspire awe. We will conclude our journey with a stroll amid the gorgeous 17th-century French colonial architecture of Chandannagar before returning to Kolkata for disembarkation.

Join me on this journey of discovery and inspiration, as we admire hidden gems along India’s most sacred river.

Sincerely,
Christopher Noey,
Lecturer

An optional prelude in Kolkata is offered from January 20–23, 2024.

Departure

Monday, January 22

Depart on an overnight flight to Kolkata, India.

Kolkata, India

Tuesday, January 23

Arrive in Kolkata and transfer to the Oberoi Grand Hotel. Subject to your flight arrival, you are invited to join the prelude group for dinner tonight at the hotel. D

Kolkata / Embark Ganges Voyager

Wednesday, January 24

Begin the day with a lecture at the hotel. Continue to the Indian Museum, arguably the best in the country. See the remains of the Buddhist stupa of Bharhut, as well as sculptures from almost every Indian school of art. The museum's collection of Mughal and Rajput paintings will be opened especially for us (pending confirmation). Then visit a potters' village in Kumartuli. After lunch, you may opt to learn about the life of Mother Teresa at her home in the Missionaries of Charity headquarters with a tour of her personal room. Visit Nirmala Shishu Bhawan, the orphanage that she founded. Transfer to the port to embark Ganges Voyager. This evening, attend a festive welcome reception, dinner, and performance aboard the ship. B, L, R, D

Kolkata / Bandel / Kalna

Thursday, January 25

This morning, visit Kalighat Kali Temple, dedicated to Kali, patron goddess of Kolkata. Continue with an exploration of the architectural highlights of 18th- and 19th-century Kolkata and the Victoria Memorial. Return to the ship for lunch. After lunch, begin the journey upstream as Ganges Voyager sails through areas where European settlers established various East India companies. Step ashore in Bandel and take an excursion to Hooghly Imambara, one of the famous Shia pilgrimage centers in West Bengal, with its Victorian-era clock and large Persian chandeliers. B, L, D

Kalna / Matiari

Friday, January 26

After breakfast on board, take a full-day excursion starting with a rickshaw ride to Kalna, once a prosperous port town. Visit the Rajbari, a temple complex featuring a unique mixture of Bengali architecture. Noteworthy are the Nabakailas, Pratapeshwar, Lalji, and Krishnachandra Temples. B, L, D

Matiari / Khushbagh

Saturday, January 27

Enjoy a morning walk to the coastal village of Matiari, known for its handcrafted brass items. Return to the ship and journey upstream while having lunch on board. Cruise past the battlefield of Plassey, where Robert Clive of the British East India Company defeated the Mughal Nawabs in 1757. In the early evening, visit the charming village of Khushbagh, passing through scenic fields to arrive at the peaceful Mughal-style garden built by Alivardi Khan, an 18th-century Nawab of Bengal, where we will find his family's private mosque. B, L, D

Khushbagh / Baranagar / Murshidabad

Sunday, January 28

Continue to the peaceful village of Baranagar, which has a storied colonial history. Enjoy a walk in the village and discover several temples dating from the 18th century, including the exquisite Char Bangla Temple. Later, return to the ship and sail downstream, passing mustard fields and mango orchards to arrive at Murshidabad, a former Bengali capital with dramatic whitewashed colonial-era structures. Visit Hazarduari Palace, a 19th-century royal complex famous for its 1,000 doors. The palace houses an astonishing collection of Bengali and European antiquities. Opposite the building is the vast Nizamat Imambara, built by the Nawab for worship. Enjoy a scenic ride by local buggy to the Katra Mosque, known for its distinctive minarets. B, L, D

Murshidabad / Mayapur

Monday, January 29

Observe life along the banks of the river this morning as we journey on Ganges Voyager. After lunch on board, visit the sacred village of Mayapur, where we will find the headquarters of the International Society of Krishna Consciousness (ISKCON), which is the formal name of the Hare Krishna movement. The temple complex has been largely funded by Henry Ford's great-grandson, Alfred B. Ford. B, L, D

Mayapur / Chandannagar / Kolkata

Tuesday, January 30

Cruise to Chandannagar, which was established as a French colony in 1673. In the afternoon, explore the French colonial buildings along the promenade, including the former French governor's residence, now a museum. Continue with a visit to the Sacred Heart Church of Chandannagar, an exceptional example of French colonial architecture. Return to the ship and attend a festive farewell dinner as we continue the journey downstream to Kolkata. B, L, D

Kolkata / Disembark / Return

Wednesday, January 31

Arrive in Kolkata while enjoying breakfast on board. Later, transfer to the airport for flights home. B

An optional postlude in Delhi, Agra, and Jaipur is offered from January 31–February 5, 2024.
